Memorial Day has come and gone and summer has officially started, even though the calendar says it's still spring. The Easter Season was "officially" over on the Day of Pentecost, May 24, 2015. The Day of Pentecost is the fiftieth and last day of the Easter Season, when the Church received the gift of the Holy Spirit. We then enter those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer and what is called in the church "Ordinary Time" May 31, 2015. There are 25 Sundays during this "Ordinary Time" taking us to Christ the King Sunday on November 22. Ordinary Time doesn't need to be "ordinary" and isn't meant to mean that somehow we get a break or that the Pastor shortens his message on Sunday morning. Our church urges us "to emphasize Jesus' teachings concerning the Kingdom of God" during this time. This time is symbolized by the color green, a period of growth for each of us. (You will see the color green on the Altar too). Howarth and Paint Creek United Methodist Churches are far from being "ordinary". And, we can't help but be "Extraordinary" for Christ when we recognize the gift of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Whenever and wherever you're vacationing this summer and you drive around looking for a church in which to worship on Sunday morning, you will come upon a familiar sight: a Cross and Flame insignia on a sign, pointing you to the nearest United Methodist Church. The Cross and Flame is a powerful reminder of who and whose we are as United Methodist's. In closing Lois & I would like to thank you for your prayers, generosity, and your kindness shown to us and our granddaughter Chloe during her difficult time leading up to her Colectomy to remove the large intestine. You have made a difference in our lives and God through Jesus Christ has made a difference in all of our lives. Happy summer!

Grace, Peace and love,
Pastor Tom

FROM YOUR TREASURERS: Remember while you are on vacation, the bills continue to arrive at the churches. Consider making your weekly donations before you leave town. Thank you.

10 'Breath Prayers'

When you can't stop in a church or kneel, these short, simple prayers can be spoken in a single breath.

by Bob Hostetler

1) "Lord, have mercy."

The Desert Fathers, monastic Christians in Egypt in the third and fourth centuries, often prayed the prayer many know as the "Kyrie Eleison" (Greek for "Lord, have mercy"). Also called the "Jesus Prayer" when pronounced as "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner," it is rooted in Psalm 123:3, Luke 18:13, and Luke 18:38.

2) "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

Based on the words of the boy Samuel (1 Samuel 3:9), I occasionally pray these words to quiet my soul and express my desire to hear from God.

3) "My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth."

I often pray this prayer of affirmation and dependence, from Psalm 121:2, in times of need and desperation. It reminds me that my help does not come from my own strength or the support of others, but from God.

4) "Here I am."

This is a prayer of presence, and availability, based on the cry of the prophet in Isaiah 6:8.

5) "Show your power."

I often pray this short prayer (based on Psalm 68:28, among others) to intercede for others, particularly when the need is great and the situation dire.

6) "When I am afraid, I will trust you."

My children memorized this verse (Psalm 56:3) when they were four and five, I think. It has since helped not only them but also me to remain calm and trustful when tempted by worry and fear.

7) "Not my will, but yours."

This prayer, of course, echoes Jesus' prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane (Luke 22:42). Like the previous prayer, it helps to pray this "breath prayer" when you are anxious or impatient. It places the praying heart in a position of surrender, where great answers are likely to come.

8) "Bring your kingdom."

Based on the prayer Jesus taught his earliest followers (Luke 11:2), I often breathe this prayer when I am overwhelmed by the sadness and horrors of the latest news or a devastating diagnosis. In just a few words, it expresses a heartfelt desire for the day when "the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God" (Revelation 12:10) will be fully realized and the Evil One will be defeated.

9) "Say the word."

When a Roman centurion sent word to Jesus asking him to heal a sick servant, he told Jesus that he didn't even feel worthy for the Lord to come into his house. He simply requested, "Say the word, and my servant will be healed" (Luke 7:7). Jesus commended the centurion's faith, for his request showed that he knew Jesus could heal with a word. So I will often pray for someone's healing—from sickness, addiction, emotional pain, depression, etc.—with this breath prayer.

10) "Come, Lord Jesus."

I breathe this prayer—the last prayer recorded in the Bible (Revelation 22:20)—not only as a prayer for Christ's return but also as a prayer for him to come repeatedly, constantly, into my situation and struggles.

PERSON OF FAITH:

NANCY POWELL was born in Newport, Arkansas, a small southern community consisting of 5,000 people. The towns claim to fame is Sam Walton was also born there. Sam began the Walmart store chain.

Nancy's dad was an Arkansas State Trooper while her mother was a stay-at-home mom. Nancy grew up with 1 sibling who is now deceased. Graduating from Newport High School, Nancy went on to attend Arkansas State University for 2 years majoring in business.

She met her husband Max at the age of sixteen. Max also attended ASU. They married in 1958 after Nancy's sophomore year and Max's graduation. They moved to South Carolina where Max served in the military. Once he was discharged from the service, they moved to Michigan. Max worked at National Twist Drill in Rochester as a sales representative. Later he started his own business which he owned for thirty years.

Nancy has 3 children. Darran and Patty live in Michigan and Susan in Minnesota. She has 3 grandchildren. Spencer, on occasion, attends Paint Creek with his grandmother. Nancy's dear husband Max passed away September, 2014.

While being a stay-at-home mom, Nancy volunteered in the schools her children attended. She preferred this role over working a full-time job.

The Powell's traveled Michigan. Then every year for 25 years they vacationed at a fishing lodge at Hubert Lake in Canada. This was where all the family gatherings were held.

Nancy's interests revolve around her family, cooking, Gardening, reading historical novels and mystery/suspense stories.

Nancy attended a southern Baptist church while living in Arkansas. She then attended a Congregational church. She got out of the habit of attending church for several years then Stan Summers invited Max and her to visit Paint Creek.

During Max's 3 month stay in the hospital, Pastor Tom and Lois would visit often. When Max passed away Pastor Tom was asked to officiate at the funeral. The funeral was on a Friday and Nancy attended Paint Creek that following Sunday. She has been attending since that time. Nancy joined Paint Creek this past spring as a professing member.

When asked what Nancy likes about Paint Creek she replied, "Pastor Tom and Lois, Stan's humorous exchanges with Pastor, the friendly congregation, being a small church and the warm atmosphere." She just feels comfortable in church saying "you don't have to be anything but what you are."

Nancy shares her interest in cooking with the congregation each Sunday. Always providing a delicious dish or two.

Thanks to Stan for helping Nancy find her way to Paint Creek, and we are very happy to have her on board!

Missions Report for 2015 - To Date

During the summer months, there will be 2 collections for missions pledged for 2015.

They are St. Andrews Society (salvaging produce from the fields to be given to the poor in this country) and Imagine No Malaria (providing nets for sleeping in Africa).

We are committed to paying $950.00 for these 2 missions. Our apportionment money is paying for 5 missions. We are at the half way point on these missions. We pledged $1050.00 and have paid $525.00 to date. Out of the mission fund, we have recently paid $1,305 for other missions. Please give generously for the remaining missions.

Money given for birthdays and anniversaries goes to the mission fund. This money is helpful in paying for our pledged missions. Grocery products given to the Food Pantry also count as credit for missions. Money donated to the Crop Walk program also count as a mission. Last year Paint Creek paid or gave product which amounted to $10,000.00. Let's see if we can do as well this year.

Thank you to all who gave so generously in 2014.
